Position 14: Assistant Lecturer – Hotel Management

Ref Code: UFE-MAN-26-002

The Faculty Management invites qualified and motivated candidates to fill the position of Assistant Lecturer in Hotel Management. The successful candidate will support teaching and student development in hotel management, leveraging France's world-renowned expertise in hospitality and tourism.

Responsibilities

- Lead tutorials and selected lectures in hotel management — including front-office operations, housekeeping management, food and beverage management, revenue management, and service excellence — primarily in French.
- Contribute to practical instruction through role-plays, case studies, and on-site learning at partner hotels.
- Assist in the preparation of course materials, assignments, and assessments.
- Support internship coordination and student industry placements, including liaison with French and Egyptian hospitality employers.
- Organize and accompany site visits to hotels, resorts, and hospitality events.
- Contribute to career development activities, including CV and interview preparation for students entering the hospitality sector.
- Pursue doctoral research in hospitality management, tourism management, or a closely related field.
- Foster connections with the hospitality industry in Egypt and France, particularly with French and European hospitality brands.
- Participate in faculty events, workshops, and student recruitment activities.
- Contribute to departmental service and student advising.

Experience / Skills

- Master's degree in the relevant discipline or a closely related field from a recognized university; actively pursuing a Ph.D. is required.
- Teaching experience at the university level (including as a teaching assistant) is required.
- Commitment to scholarly development, with evidence of ongoing research toward the doctoral degree.
- Professional or industry experience in the relevant field is an asset.
- Professional industry experience in the hotel sector, preferably with French or European hospitality brands, is strongly preferred.

- Excellent command of English. French language command will be an asset.
- A good understanding of the French higher education system and ideally experience with collaborations in this field with France, would be a significant asset.
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and teamwork skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively with colleagues from diverse cultural and academic backgrounds.

Application Instructions

Interested applicants are invited to submit a curriculum vitae that includes: employment history, a statement of research and teaching interests aligned with UFE's Franco-Egyptian mission, a list of publications, the names of at least three referees, and a letter of motivation.

Academic rank is assigned based on the highest degree earned, teaching experience, research output, and years of relevant experience.

Applications will be reviewed until the position is filled. For best consideration, applications should be submitted by Nov 5th, 2026.
